

ORNAMENTAL PLANT GERMPLASM CENTER

Formation of Crop Technical Working Groups

Responsibilities: Providing advice on:

- Germplasm diversity, natural distribution and existing collections, taxonomic and evolutionary relationships, genetics, etc.
- Seed and plant material multiplication and storage
- Descriptors, characterization and evaluation
- Germplasm related research areas

Membership:

- 5-7 members per working group i.e. per crop
- Specialists in the crop or the discipline e.g. plant collector, taxonomist, geneticist, plant breeder, pathologist, entomologist, etc.

Communication:

- Email, tele-conference, HOCGC meeting, ASHS meetings, industry Conferences, etc.

Crops:

Alstroemeria, Aquilegia, Aster, Baptisia, Begonia, Campanula, Chrysanthemum, Dianthus, Euphorbia (Poinsettia), Geranium, Hemerocallis, Impatiens, Iris, Lilium, Narcissus, Pelargonium, Petunia, Phalaenopsis, Phlox, Rudbeckia, Tagetes, Verbena, Veronica, Viola

INVITATION: You are invited to sign up for the crops that you can contribute to.

Your name: _____

E-mail: _____

Organization: _____

Genera: _____

RECOMMENDATIONS:

Please recommend others who can contribute.

Name

Email/Address

Crop

INSTRUCTION:

Please return the completed form to

David Tay, OPGC,
670 Tharp Street,
Columbus, OH 43210;
fax (614 292 3768)

or email:
tay.9@osu.edu